

Woodward's Week-At-A-Glance (WAAG) for Families: November 6th – 13th

Paper Mache Project by Opal Chan and her Father Danny a Creative and Responsible Learning Activity For All.

Please see the attached photos and summary of a great Arts and Craft workshop put on by Opal Chan and her father, Danny, on Friday, October 27th for our Intermediate students and some home schooled students and families from Richmond. Central to the activity was learning how we can re-use recycled, or previously used materials, such as paper or cardboard, to create some wonderful works of art. Congrats and thank you to Opal for her leadership in putting together this fun and creative project.

Some Exciting Staffing News To Share:

Firstly, we are pleased to announce that Catherine McPherson is joining our Noon Hour Supervisor Team, beginning on Monday. And welcome back to Ashley Cupiol. Secondly, we are thrilled to have Ms. Cupiol back with us at Woodward and in Division 4, beginning on Tuesday this week.

Photo Retake Day Wednesday November 8th at 1:00 – 1:30 pm:

For those students who missed the first photo day, or want a re-do, the photographer from Edge Imagery will be at Woodward this Wednesday in the afternoon.

Families Welcome To Join Us For Our Remembrance Day Assembly on Friday November 10th at 11:00 am

We are looking forward to this year's Remembrance Day Assembly. All of our classes are performing - and classroom teachers are currently rehearsing with their students for their songs, poems, and reflections of Remembrance and Peace. There is also a great deal of learning for our students in the days leading up to Remembrance Day, including our first Family Teams activity on Wednesday entitled, "Postcard Messages to War Veterans". During this activity, students will gather in the gym in K to 7 groupings to create postcards with powerful messages of thanks and acknowledgements of the sacrifices our veterans made for all of us in this amazing community. We hope you can join us for this year's Remembrance Day Assembly.
